ISLAND FLAVOURS

There's one thing you notice immediately when you stay at Bij Jef: you're on an island. There's something about the fresh colours, clear light and hip but comfortable decor that perfectly complements the Dutch island atmosphere, and the hotel is just a short walk from the beach. Chef Jef and sommelier Nadine are true culinary royalty. Nadine is expert at surprising you with unexpectedly excellent food and wine pairings. Meanwhile in the kitchen, Jef remains calm and controlled as the pans bubble away furiously. His dishes gain their distinctive flavours from the pure and naturally saline local ingredients. Try the Texel lamb or cockles from the Wadden Sea..

'We want to offer our guests a relaxed environment so that they can unwind as much as possible on Texel.'

WALK

Take a private walking tour with dune farmer Benno Bakker and discover the beauty of Texel.

FAUNA

Benno also manages the herd of highland cattle on Texel. He'll take you to visit them and show you Exmoor ponies and numerous bird species along the way.
